

Why Zurich LifeVault matters

The statistics below serve as a powerful reminder of the importance of planning ahead. During an already difficult time, having everything in one secure place can help ease the burden on those left behind.

Zurich LifeVault allows customers to safely store treasured memories, including photos, family recipes and keepsakes, alongside essential legal and financial documents. The information can be shared with trusted loved ones, providing reassurance and support when it matters most.

As a day-one benefit included with all our personal protection policies, Zurich LifeVault is available from the moment cover begins.

Four in five UK adults worry how their family will cope after they die, but less than half have a will, and even fewer have a plan.

Nine in ten bereaved people report shouldering practical responsibilities on top of their grief.

Three in five of those managing estate admin find it difficult, rising to 83% of millennials.

26 million

UK adults risk passing away intestate because they've yet to write a will, leaving inheritance in the hands of the law, and loved ones to pick up the pieces.

Most UK adults

79% harbour worries about how loved ones will cope after they die, and yet less than half of the adult population (48%) have a valid will.

*Research of 2,000 UK adults (weighted to be nationally representative) carried out by British Polling Council member Opinium between 24th and 28th July 2026.

Discover more at: www.zurichintermediary.co.uk/support/lifevault

For intermediary use only. Not for use with your clients

Zurich Assurance Ltd, authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority. Registered in England and Wales under company number 02456671. Registered Office: Unity Place, 1 Carfax Close, Swindon, SN1 1AP. LIFMC459 (8/26) ZUR